Reviews

The publication is easy in read better to understand. It is writter in basic words and phrases rather than hard to understand. You wont truly feel monotony at anytime of your respective time (that's what catalogues are for about if you question me).

BIBLES, BULLETS BORSCHT: A US CHAPLAIN AND THE UKRAINE MILITARY (PAPERBACK)DOWNLOAD

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Cdr. Glenn Brown, retired Navy chaplain, told God he wanted to make his final days count for Jesus Christ. He said to his Lord, I don't know how to use this last segment of my life. I need your guidance. I am yours to send where you want me to go and to do what you want me to do. This was a risky prayer to make but Brown and his wife both agreed to it. The iron curtain had just come down in East Europe after the collapse of the Soviet Union. There was access into and out of the new emerging democracies released from the domination and tyranny of communism. This unconditional surrender to God took place in mid-1992. Shortly thereafter the Holy Spirit placed East Europe on their hearts as the region where God wanted to use chaplain Brown. But where in that vast region of multi-nations was he to go and what was he to do there? The Browns waited, hearing no specifics from God about place or mission through all of 1992. In the spring of 1993 people they didn't know and never new existed came into their lives. Dave Clark, a missionary in W. Ukraine, was working in the city of Mukachevo where a huge military complex was located. General Zoblotney, the installation commander, sent senior staff officers to invite Clark to come to his headquarters and demonstrate how American chaplains minister to military personnel. Clark explained he had never served in American armed forces and he had no idea how chaplains ministered. However, he said he would try to find a retired US military chaplain who might come and meet with the general....
