

Coming of Age in the West 1883 -1906 (Paperback)

By Ted Robert Gurr

Createspace, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Will Gurr s account of his youth opens a window onto western American and Alaskan life and travel as experienced by a boy growing to manhood in hard times. In Coming of Age in the West 1883-1906 Ted Robert Gurr tells Will s story by annotating a barely legible copy of his uncle s late-in-life memoirs. Will s youth was filled with adventures and dangers. His widowed father, the Rev. Henry Gurr, led his two boys to London and then a dozen Episcopal parishes in the Midwest and West. After several failed attempts to sail a schooner to Gold Rush Alaska and a trek over Skagway s White Pass in harsh weather, father and boys rowed and sailed 100 miles on lakes in the Canadian interior to the mining settlement of Aitlin. They built a rough cabin as winter set in and when the Rev. Gurr was recalled to Skagway, 15-year-old Will stayed behind. For the next seven years he made his own way. His memoirs describe vividly the years in which he worked, hunted and sailed a charter launch along Alaska s...
